Caribbean Winter School

title

The Caribbean Winter School is an international annual workshop founded in 2010 by Muenster University of Applied Sciences, Polytechnic University of Catalonia and Technological University of Habana José Antonio Echeverría in Havana, Cuba.

Students from several international universities, from Münster, Barcelona, Stuttgart, Munich, Manchester, Krakow, and Tel Aviv come together in Havana to work with students from CUJAE in cross-cultural teams.

The 15th CWS will focus on architectural projects for housing for older people.
