Prof. Dr. Thorsten Bürklin

lecturer

Lecture I: From Antiquity to the Middle Ages

title

The lectures (1st to 3rd semester) impart the basic knowledge of the history of architecture.

The first part (1st semester) considers important aspects of the history of architecture (as well as of architectural theory) from the greek antiquity up to the gothic period. Examples of the fine arts complete the topics.

Topics: Greek antiquity, Roman antiquity, Byzantine architecture, Romanic architecture, Gothic architecture.
