Personal explanation

I hereby assure the correctness and completeness of the information given in this application.

I do not receive any other funding or scholarships from other institutions or organizations. If there are any changes to the financing, I will provide the information immediately and without prompting.

I confirm that I have no bank accounts, savings accounts or other unspecified assets other than those specified in the application.

I am aware that incorrect or incomplete information can lead to the exclusion of funding.

Declaration of consent

I consent to the exchange of my personal scholarship-related data between the institutions (International Office, selection committees, DAAD, third-party funding providers and other relevant scholarship providers) that manage the scholarship. The data collected will only be used in connection with the Matching Funds scholarship. They are useful for accountability reports, for statistical purposes and to avoid unjustified double funding.

I am aware that I can withdraw this consent at any time in writing with future effect and that my electronically stored data will be deleted immediately.
